

LANCASTER AWARD RECIPIENTS

The Lancaster award was established in memory of Walter B. Lancaster, MD a leading ophthalmologist in the United States for many years with an international reputation and an ardent interest in orthoptics. The award is given annually to an orthoptist who has made outstanding contributions to orthoptics either in teaching, publishing articles or books, devising materials, designing instruments, or developing new techniques.

2018

Pam Berg

2017

Karen McMa

2016

Diana Sham

2015

Carole Pant